

CHANEL:

Practice! Practice! Practice! It has made all the difference for me – and remember – Practice does make perfect. And I, Chanel, should know. I have the pedigree and two obedience degrees. One doesn't have my posture, my talent and my picture on the cover of Dog Show Magazine for five years in a row for nothing. But it's stressful_being so beautiful: the grooming, the training, hair and pedicures. But above all, making sure I have time for my darling guardian Stephen. He always makes certain to carve out precious moments from his busy schedule so together we can explore our passion – our raison d'être – to sing!
